Queensland Child Protection Week

6-12th September

As a community, the protection of our children is sacrosanct – there is no greater call on us as adults.

Next week, we will be focusing on this in a more formalised way at school. Teachers will be teaching some of the important areas of student protection using the Daniel Morcombe curriculum.